

Opportunity for an Experienced Business Acumen Instructor

Opportunity

Insight Experience is looking for an experienced classroom instructor interested in 20-25 days/year of program delivery to teach business acumen training programs to audiences worldwide. These programs incorporate a business simulation to teach fundamental business economics as well as leadership and are conducted in English.

Who we are

Insight Experience (www.insight-experience.com) specializes in the development and delivery of experiential learning programs to accelerate leadership development and strategy execution. We are one of the world's leading developers of business simulations for the corporate education marketplace with an important twist. Our solutions develop and integrate both the business and people skills critical to meeting today's complex leadership. Our simulations powerfully demonstrate the impact that leadership skills have on business results.

We are a unique company of diverse individuals committed to creating deep insights for our clients, their businesses and themselves. We pride ourselves on our client results, our team culture and the work environment we offer.

Who we are looking for

- Experienced classroom facilitator with 5 – 7 years experience teaching finance and business acumen to corporate education audiences with a track record and strong references of work; MBA or other graduate degree; operating experience in a corporate role is a plus.
- Strong financial background; prepared to teach and discuss the dynamics of a capital intensive business; expertise in teaching financial reporting, basic financial dynamics of business and key metrics including EVA, ROA, ROCE, etc.
- Experience facilitating computer-based business simulations or a willingness to learn how to facilitate them
- Desire to work in a team-based, entrepreneurial company
- Willingness to travel, domestically and internationally
